11 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25,

13 if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country. The parties are also put on 14 notice of the following provisions in NRS 125.510(8):

15 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign 16 country:

17 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the 18 child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes 19 of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

20 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if 21 the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or 22 concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an

24 child and returning him to his habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or

26 commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an 27 imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

28 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the following provision of NRS 125C.200:

If custody has been established and the custodial parent intends to move his or her residence to a place outside of this State and to take the child with him or her, the custodial parent must, as soon as possible and before the planned move, attempt to obtain the written consent of the noncustodial parent to move the child from this State. If the noncustodial parent refuses to give that consent, the custodial parent shall, before leaving this State with the child, petition the court for permission to move the child. The failure of a parent to comply with the provisions of this section may be considered as a factor if a change of custody is requested by the noncustodial parent.
